Great Gifts for the Cabin Dad

This Father's Day, think beyond the necktie • By Emily Hare

1 FOR THE FOODIE

If your father loves making pancakes for cabin brunch, then chances are he has some pretty strong opinions about real maple syrup. Impress him with one that matured in a Tuthilltown bourbon barrel. Mikuni Wild Harvest Noble Tonic 01 (450 ml), $29, www.mikuniwildharvest.com

2 FOR THE HYGENIC

Ahh ... There's nothing like the smell of a cedar log cabin in the morning. "Tested on dudes, not animals!" ManHands Manly Scented Soap (32 manly scents available), $7 for a 3-ounce bar, www.manhandsoap.com

3 FOR THE FASHIONABLE

If your dad is like mine and never leaves the cabin without donning his favorite hat, then make this one his next go-to cap. Cabin Life Trucker Hat (black or cardinal), $20, www.CabinLife.com/shop

4 FOR THE OUTDOORSMAN

With this triple-insulated, stainless steel thermos, your pop can sneak off to the woods for the day and have hot coffee at the ready for up to 8 hours (cold beverages up to 36 hours). Eco Vessel Mossy Oak Bigfoot Water Bottle (45 fl. oz.), $38, www.ecovessel.com

5 FOR THE EXPLORER

Stay in touch with Dad from up to 28 miles away. Just don't be surprised if he starts every transmission with, "Did I ever tell you about the time ..." Cobra CXT 545 Walkie Talkie 28-Mile Radio, $90, www.cobra.com

6 FOR THE LAKE LOVER

Dad will be proud to wear his last name (e.g., Lisika) above the name of his favorite lake. He'll also be proud of you for thinking of it. Boat Tours T-shirt, $25, www.lakehouselifestyle.com

7 FOR THE DIY-ER

This multitool has an ax for light chopping and a handy saw blade that hides away in the ax handle. It can also be used to hammer and pull tent stakes. Zippe 4-in-1 Woodsman, $80, www.zippoutdoor.com

8 FOR THE ANGLER

Fashioned in Finnish style from reindeer antler and rare curly birch wood, this knife is, shall we say, sharp. Martini Classic Collector Fillet Knife from Rapala, $64, www.rapala.com
