

MOTOMARKET

Cobra JumpPack

Motorcycle batteries can be rather finicky, and sooner or later, we're all going to need a jump. Sure, you can push start most motorcycles, but what if there's no one to help you push? The JumpPack from Cobra Electronics is the perfect solution. The device is basically a small, yet powerful battery that is capable of giving your motorcycle a jump (multiple times on one charge) if you need it. It can also be used to charge your cell phone or other mobile device via a USB port. There's also a built-in LED flashlight. The JumpPack comes with wall and cigarette charging plugs as well as alligator clips for car and motorcycle batteries. Suggested retail price is $149.95. www.cobra.com

Dowco Guardian WeatherAll Plus Motorcycle Covers

If you're not blessed with a garage or other indoor area to park your motorcycle, it's important that you protect your pride and joy from the elements. Dowco's lineup of Guardian WeatherAll Plus Motorcycle Covers are a great solution. The lineup boasts 11 covers of various sizes to fit just about any motorcycle or trike including Can-Am Spyders. The covers are made of ClimaShield, which is a 300-denier polyester fabric with a water-repellent top coat and mildew-resistant polyurethane undercoating. The covers come with a limited lifetime warranty and are also available in Hi-Viz. MSRP is $88.99-$128.99 depending on model. www.dowcopowersports.com

CruzTools Motorcycle Tool Kits

Any experienced motorcyclist knows that a good tool kit is essential to have on any tour. However, it can be hard to track down just the right set for your specific bike. Luckily, CruzTools has you covered with an assortment of high-quality tool kits for various applications. There's a CruzTools set for Harley-Davidsons and BMW's as well as generic sets geared for European and Japanese bikes. Prices run from $14.95 to $139.95. The kits are available at local dealerships and a variety of online retailers. www.cruztools.com

MOTOMARKET

motoPOCKET

Designed to attach discreetly to the inside of your top or...

MOTOMARKET

Cobra JumpPack

Motorcycle batteries can be rather finicky, and sooner or later, we're all going to need a jump. Sure, you can push start most motorcycles, but what if there's no one to help you push? The JumpPack from Cobra Electronics is the perfect solution. The device is basically a small, yet powerful battery that is capable of giving your motorcycle a jump (multiple times on one charge) if you need it. It can also be used to charge your cell phone or other mobile device via a USB port. There's also a built-in LED flashlight. The JumpPack comes with wall and cigarette charging plugs as well as alligator clips for car and motorcycle batteries. Suggested retail price is $149.95. www.cobra.com

Dowco WeatherAll Plus Motorcycle Covers

If you're not blessed with a garage or other indoor area to park your motorcycle, it's important that you protect your pride and joy from the elements. Dowco's lineup of Guardian WeatherAll Plus Motorcycle Covers are a great solution. The lineup boasts 11 covers of various sizes to fit just about any motorcycle or trike including Can-Am Spyders. The covers are made of ClimaShield, which is a 300-denier polyester fabric with a water-repellent top coat and mildew-resistant polyurethane undercoating. The covers come with a limited lifetime warranty and are also available in Hi-Viz. MSRP is $88.99-$128.99 depending on model. www.dowcopowersports.com